

The current zoning of this property is Single Residential Zone 1.

We are adding onto the existing residential building, and no rezoning has been done on the property. We are superseding the previously approved plans, as the client chose not to proceed with the former designer's proposal and appointed us as the new professional to prepare a new design.